BLACK HISTORY MONTH

BHM FUNTRIUM KICK-OFF

Feb. 6 | 12 pm | Ham-Will Atrium

Sponsored by Student Involvement Office & Office of Multicultural Student Affairs

Celebrate Black History Month with food and fun in the atrium. Learn about all the upcoming events this month!

OWU'S GOT TALENT

Feb. 7 | 7 pm | Milligan Hub (Stuyvesant Hall)

Sponsored by Black Student Union

Show off your best talents and celebrate your friends at BSU's annual talent show!

FIGURING OUR HUMANITY

On Exhibit Thru Feb. 9 | Ross Art Museum (60 S Sandusky St)

Sponsored by the Ross Art Museum

Open Tues, Weds, Friday 10-5 pm, Thursday 10-9 pm, Sunday 1-5 pm

This exhibit pairs two-dimensional works from the museum's Permanent Collection with three-dimensional works by contemporary ceramicists. Included are the works of 4 African-American artists: Wanda Ewing, Kyle & Kelly Phelps, and Paul Andrew Wandless. The Ross Museum is always free and open to all.

MONTI WASHINGTON

Feb. 17 | 8 pm | Benes B

Sponsored by Campus Programming Board

CPB presents Monti Washington on February 17 in Benes B at 8 pm. His interactive presentation shares his inspiring journey from the streets to the stage.

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS OPEN HOUSE FOR BHM

Feb. 18 | 12 pm | Special Collections Area, Beeghly Library (2nd floor)

Sponsored by Beeghly Library

Stop by the OWU Libraries Special Collections Reading Room and see materials that relate to experiences and achievements of Ohio Wesleyan's Black students and alumni. Librarians will be on hand to answer questions. Select items from Rare Books & Manuscripts and the Archives of Ohio United Methodism will also be on display. Come for as long as you like!

LIVE ART SHOWCASE

Feb. 21 | 7 pm | House of Black Culture (65 Oak Hill Ave)

Sponsored by Office of Multicultural Student Affairs

Our goal is to create an entertaining safe space where OWU creatives can come together with like-minded people to freely let their unique voices be heard and raw talents be shared. From live music, captivating visuals and euphoric spoken word, we wish to provide a space and a vibe that appreciates and celebrates individuality, creativity, and diversity in multitudinous artistic ways.

EBONY & IVORY BALL

Feb. 22 | 8 pm | Benes Room

Sponsored by Black Student Union

Dress to impress at this annual semi-formal event. Contact BSU for more information.