

1975 Class Dinner: Trivia Questions

1. Our final fall term, we were greeted with OWU's 15th consecutive tuition hike. How much did it cost to attend that year?
($4,380)
2. To replace the 70-year-old Edwards Gym, the winning architectural design for Branch Rickey Arena was:
(Hyperbolic Paraboloid)
3. What musical performer did not appear on campus our senior year?
(Harry Nilsson)
4. Glenn Troth installed a 30ft sculpture in Dishwater Run made entirely of old chrome car bumpers. What did it depict?
(A sea serpent)
5. OWU crime spiked to 655 incidents, triple the reports from 1971. What did campus security speculate caused the increase?
(no-classes Reading Day established on Wednesdays)
6. Who was named the Transcript's 1975 athlete of the year?
(Kenny Walker)
7. Why did police close down Beeghly Library and the surrounding area one day in February?
(Live Viet Cong hand grenades discovered in basement)
8. What speaker did not appear on campus our senior year?
(Bobby Seale)
9. Who did not live in the infamous Blue House on Spring Street?
(Paul Myers)

10. What professor was presented the university's top teaching honor (the Sherwood Dodge Shankland Award) at our graduation?
(Jan Hallenbeck, History)

11. What surprise decision did Catering Management Incorporated, OWU's dining service provider, announce during the year?
(Went out of business over Christmas break)

12. What widely available beer in Delaware's saloons modestly marketed itself as a "Nectar to the Gods"?
(Gambrinus)