

Andrew “Andy” Morrison ’85 Alumni Award

With this presentation of Ohio Wesleyan University’s Alumni Award, the Ohio Wesleyan Alumni Association Board of Directors is honored to recognize Andrew Morrison ’85 for his steadfast commitment and outstanding service to OWU.

Andy is a Delta Tau Delta and graduated from OWU with a bachelor’s degree in accounting and a minor in politics & government. Since graduation, Andy has held positions with Fidelity Investments, Fidelity Charitable Gift Fund, PG Calc, and most recently, Oxfam America as a planned giving officer. Andy has consistently made time for Ohio Wesleyan throughout his professional career.

Andy became involved in his local chapter of the alumni association as early as a few years after graduation, and he has continued to serve OWU with dedication. Andy served two terms on the OWU Alumni Association Board of Directors, where he was involved in multiple committees and task forces. He has served the university in numerous volunteer roles including, but not limited to, class leader, reunion committee volunteer, admission volunteer, and regional volunteer leading the Boston market for years.

Andy is a loyal donor to Ohio Wesleyan and is a member of the Loyal Bishops Society, 1842 Society, and President’s Circle. Throughout the years, he has supported numerous OWU initiatives and programs, including endowed scholarship funds, residential renewal, and the Meek Aquatic Recreation Center, to name a few.

Andy is also a loyal OWU event attendee and has attended countless events on and off campus. He’s a friendly and familiar face at Homecoming and Family Weekend, Reunion Weekend and special events like campaign kickoffs and closing celebrations, presidential inauguration, New York Holiday parties, OWU Hall of Fame inductions, and OWU Alumni Award breakfasts. You’ve likely seen Andy at virtual alumni trivia nights, book club gatherings, Red Sox games, Cape Cod clambakes, and even a whale-watching event—all for Ohio Wesleyan.

Andy considers Ohio Wesleyan part of who he is, and the university definitely considers Andy part of the fabric that makes OWU special. Thank you, Andy, for your loyal dedication and support of Ohio Wesleyan University.
