

Alumni Award

Lonnis and Anne Mendenhall Denison

Classes of 1915 and 1923

Lonnis and Anne Mendenhall Denison epitomize the best in town-grown relationships. Ohio Wesleyan benefits from the esteem in which they are held by the Delaware community, of which they are both respected and admired members.

The Denisons have worked quietly and consistently from their Alma Mater, serving with dignity, charm and humor in whatever capacity was needed. Last fall they gave valuable assistance in making arrangements for the first get-together of the 700 Delaware Country alumni of Ohio Wesleyan in some years. During many months, both have given hours to thoughtful and imaginative planning toward the success of this 55th reunion of Lonnis's class.

Their positive attitude of faith in Ohio Wesleyan is best indicated in a quotation from their letter acknowledging selection for this award. "We shall always feel loyal to Ohio Wesleyan University because its future is entrusted to wise, sincere, and honest people."

With sincere pleasure, we present this award, jointly, to Lonnis, Class of 1915, and Anne Mendenhall Denison, Class of 1923.

