

Departmental Tutoring Services

The following extra tutorial services, beyond assistance and clarification from the course professors during office hours, are offered by the following departments. Some departments and programs can assist students with finding support on an informal case-by-case basis, but do not offer formal tutoring. If a department or program is not listed, please talk with your professors about support or tutoring options.

Astronomy: Tutoring for ASTR 110 is available on Wednesday from 7:00-9:00 PM in Beeghly Library, Room 021

Biological Sciences: Students should first talk with their professors if they need assistance. Several professors assemble lists of volunteer tutors. In addition, walk-in peer tutoring for BIOL 120 and 122 is available in the Welch Hall reading room on Monday 7:00-9:00 PM, and on the lower level of Beeghly Library on Tuesday and Thursday, 7:00- 9:00 PM. No appointments are needed during walk-in hours.

Scheduled appointments are available in the Hobson Science Library in the Schimmel Conrades Science Center (SCSC) on Wednesday from 3:00 – 5:00 PM. To schedule an individual appointment, visit the Zoology department's information page (<https://www.owu.edu/academics/departments-programs/department-of-zoology/resources/departmental-tutoring-program/>) and click the link above the tutors' bios near the bottom of the page, or go here.

Botany-Microbiology (BOMI): The first line of assistance should be the faculty. Several professors assemble lists of tutors. (Please see the Biological Sciences listing for information about peer tutoring for BIOL 120 and 122.)

Chemistry: The Department of Chemistry is pleased to offer Chem Corner, a free tutoring service for General Chemistry II (CHEM 111) students. The hours are Monday, Wednesday and Thursday 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, in Beeghly Library, Room 035. Upper level chemistry students should consult the faculty for support and assistance.

Comparative Literature: Formal tutoring is not available, but students are encouraged to consult their professors if they would like assistance or support in their classes.

Computer Science: The Missouri Club offers tutoring for CS 110 on Monday and Wednesday from 6:00- 8:00 PM in Beeghly Library, Room 218. Students should consult with their professors for support in other CS classes.

Classics: Tutoring is available in Latin and Greek. Please see the specific entries for those subjects for more information.

Economics: Omicron Delta Epsilon provides tutoring for Principles of Economics (ECON 110), Research Methods in Economics (ECON 251) and Intermediate Microeconomics (ECON 252). Students are requested to e-mail the tutors listed at least a day in advance of the tutoring time they desire. Tutors will reply with the specific meeting time and place. See the list of current tutors on p.7.

English: Support and feedback on writing are available through the Writing Center. Otherwise, individual faculty members work with students.

Fine Arts: Since faculty members are working in the studios during many non-class hours, they are available to assist students at those times. There is no formal “tutoring” available beyond these informal one-on-one situations. For art history ART110: Survey of Art History I and ART 111: Survey of Art History II, students should contact Professor Neuman de Vegvar [(740) 368-3603, cndevegv@owu.edu] to arrange contact with potential student tutors.

Geology-Geography: Students should first talk with their professors if they need assistance. In addition, walk-in peer tutoring for GEOG 110 & 111 is available on the lower level of Beeghly on Wednesday 6:00 PM- 8:00 PM. No appointments are needed during walk-in hours.

Greek: Dr. Lee Fratantuono will meet with students on an individual basis for tutoring in Greek. Students may contact Dr. Fratantuono in Slocum Hall 332 or by email at lmfratan@owu.edu.

Health and Human Kinetics: Faculty in Health and Human Kinetics (HHK) often work individually with students who need tutoring. From time to time the HHK faculty will also arrange for student-led tutoring on an as-needed basis.

History: While no formal tutoring services are offered, faculty members work with students who would like assistance or support in their classes. Students are encouraged to consult their professors to arrange conferences.

Latin: Sarah Foster and Dr. Lee Fratantuono offer tutoring in Latin. Students may contact Dr. Fratantuono in Slocum Hall 332 or by email for more information or to make an appointment.

Mathematics: Tutoring is available from the Q-Center in Math 104, Math 105, Math 108, Math 110, Math 111, and Math 230. (Tutoring in other Math classes may be available on request.) The Q-Center open walk in hours are Monday – Wednesday, 3:00 – 5:00 PM, and Thursday 3:30 – 5:30 PM in Corns 315 (across from the Sagan ARC) and Monday and Wednesday, 7:00 – 9:00 PM in Beeghly Library on the lower level. Individual appointments are also available throughout the week; hours vary day to day depending on tutor schedules. Call 740-368-3925 or stop by the Sagan ARC in Corns 316 to arrange individual appointments. See the Interdepartmental Tutoring Services section on p. 4 for details.

Modern Foreign Languages: Tutoring is available for Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, and Spanish in University Hall and in Beeghly library. Ohio Wesleyan University students who are native or excellent speakers provide the tutoring. Tutoring times and locations are posted throughout University Hall and at the front desk in Beeghly. For further information, please contact Jody Forman at \(740\) 368-3667. See the list of specific times and locations for MFL tutoring Spring 2018 on pp. 5-6.

Music: Tutoring is available for all music courses. The first line of help is the faculty, and students are encouraged to seek help and advice from their professors. Tutoring is by appointment and can be scheduled as a group or one-on-one. Students should talk with their professors to discuss opportunities for support outside the classroom.

Philosophy: Tutoring takes place on a personal and individual basis in Philosophy department courses. The first line of help is the faculty, and all students are encouraged to seek help and advice from their professors. Individual and group study sessions are common.

Physics: Tutoring for PHYS 111 and 116 is available on Monday from 9:00- 11:00 PM and Wednesday from 7:00 – 9:00 PM in Welch 016.

Psychology: Students are encouraged to seek help and advice from their professors. The Psychology Department offers walk-in peer tutoring for PSYC 110 on Monday 7:00- 9:00 PM on the lower level of Beeghly Library and Tuesday 6:00 – 8:00 PM in the Welch Hall reading room. Tutoring for PSYC 210 is available Monday 7:00- 9:00 PM and 8:00 – 9:00 PM on Wednesday on the lower level of Beeghly Library, and on Tuesday 12:00- 1:00 PM in Phillips Hall.

Religion: The faculty fills the need for tutoring in all departmental courses. Tutoring is by appointment and can be done on a group basis or one-on-one.

Theatre and Dance: The faculty fills the need for tutoring. Faculty often work in rehearsal rooms and shops during non-class hours and can provide quick assistance at those times. Students should talk with their professors to discuss opportunities for support outside the classroom.

Writing: Tutoring by appointment and walk-in is available from the Writing Center for all types of writing in all classes. The Writing Center in Corns 316 is open for appointments from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Monday through Friday. Walk-in hours are in Beeghly Library, lower level, Tuesday 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM and Thursday 6:00 – 8:00 PM, and in Corns 316 (Sagan ARC) Monday 3:00 – 5:00 PM and Thursday 1:15 - 5:00 PM. See the Interdepartmental Tutoring Services section on p. 4 for details.

Zoology: Tutoring is done on a personal and individual basis in Zoology department courses. The first line of help is the faculty; all students are encouraged to seek help and advice from their professors. Individual and group study sessions are common. (See the listing for Biological Sciences for information about peer tutoring for BIOL 120 and 122.)
