Established by alumna Emily Fitton, this award is granted to the Sociology/Anthropology student who completes the most outstanding research paper in a sociology/anthropology course.

DEADLINE: Thursday, February 28th

- The paper should deal with a sociological/anthropological issue.
- The paper must be from a SOAN department course.
- Paper must be from a spring or fall SOAN course in the calendar year prior to the award (i.e., SP18 or FA18 for the 2019 award).
- Honors theses are not eligible for this award.
- Minimum of eight typed, double-spaced pages.
- Paper can either be based on field research or library research.
- One paper per applicant per year. This paper can only be submitted once during the four years at Ohio Wesleyan, although the individual can submit different papers in other years.
- The paper must be submitted to the Sociology/Anthropology Office anonymously by the end of February of the year of the award. Paper is to be submitted to the SOAN secretary in Elliott Hall 211 (not to a faculty member – the faculty judge these papers without knowing the identity of the authors).
- Award and cash prize will be presented at the SOAN End-of-Year Picnic.
