Hooray to the new year full of promise! To welcome spring 2021, the Lifelong Learning Institute of Ohio Wesleyan University presents a diverse slate of classes. Classes begin on March 15 with courses offered via Zoom with a limited number of scholarships available this spring. Taught by volunteers, including professors, practitioners and others in a non-competitive environment, each class meets weekly online for approximately two hours. Online registration begins February 8 with options for mail and telephone registration outlined on back. Class descriptions, registration, and scholarship information and application can be found at www.owu.edu/LLI. Join us for another exciting and informative term for the community of lifelong learners 55 and older. We look forward to seeing you! Please contact the LLI at lli@owu.edu or 740-368-3078 with any questions.
